

Agreement between the Legal Aid Foundation, R.O.C. (Taiwan), and the Public Attorney's Office, Department of Justice, the Philippines on Mutual Legal Assistance for Citizens of both Countries

In order to safeguard the basic right of citizens to receive legal assistance and to facilitate sharing and exchange among legal aid organizations, the Legal Aid Foundation, R.O.C. (Taiwan), and the Public Attorney's Office, Department of Justice, the Philippines have, after a negotiation process, entered into the following agreement regarding mutual legal assistance for citizens of both countries and liaison mechanisms between the two parties.

1. Cooperation Items

With regards to the provision of legal aid services, the two parties agree to provide the following assistance to each other:

- (1) On receiving notice from the other party, provision of immediate and free legal advice by a lawyer to the citizen(s) specified by the other party.
- (2) On receiving notice from the other party, provision of immediate and free personal consultation services by a lawyer in any prison or detention center where a citizen(s) specified by the other party is being held. When necessary, the party may directly accept an application from such a citizen for further legal aid assistance. In a scenario where a citizen has received legal aid and has subsequently left the country, the other party shall continue to maintain communication to ensure provision of further assistance during any appeal process.
- (3) Both parties shall provide legal aid to citizens of the other party's country in the same manner as they offer their own citizens.¹
- (4) When necessary, during provision of the aforementioned services to citizens of the other party's country, each party shall provide appropriate translation/interpretation services.
- (5) Each party shall establish a list of lawyers available to provide legal assistance, which may be used as a reference by citizens of the other party when engaging a lawyer.
- (6) In addition to law-related resources, the two parties shall endeavor to refer other social resources (for example, emergency assistance) to citizens of the other party.

2. Practical Exchanges

Both parties agree to collectively arrange conferences, visits and training programs for relevant managers and personnel; as well as sharing of information on policies, systems, case studies and other related information.

3. Contact Person

The two parties shall appoint a contact person from their respective executive departments to coordinate and implement matters agreed on in the Agreement.

4. Request for Legal Assistance

The two parties agree to submit requests for legal assistance by means of facsimile, e-mail or other written documents. In case of emergency, however, the request may be submitted orally, subject to agreement by the other party and confirmed in writing within 10 days.
