CITIZEN'S CHARTER

2022 (1st Edition)

PUBLIC ATTORNEY'S OFFICE

CITIZEN'S CHARTER

2022 (1st Edition)

I. Mandate:

The Public Attorney's Office (PAO) shall be the principal law office of the government in extending free legal assistance to indigent persons. It is an independent and autonomous office that renders, free of charge, legal representation, assistance, and counseling to indigent persons in criminal, civil, labor, administrative and other quasi-judicial cases. In the exigency of the service, the PAO may be called upon by proper government authorities to render such service to other persons, subject to existing laws, rules, and regulations. It also includes investigation pursuant to Republic Act (R.A.) No. 9262, R.A. No. 9745, and other related laws.

II. Vision:

The PAO exists to provide the indigent litigants, the oppressed, marginalized, and underprivileged members of the society free access to courts, judicial, and quasi-judicial agencies, by rendering legal services, counseling, and assistance in consonance with the Constitutional mandate that "free access to courts shall not be denied to any person by reason of poverty" in order to ensure the rule of law, truth, and social justice as components of the country's sustainable development.

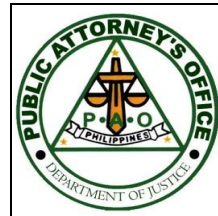

III. Mission:

By 2023, the PAO, as the principal law office of the government, shall be composed of highly motivated, effective, and empowered public servants, consistently responsive to the ever-growing legal needs of the indigents and other qualified persons, utilizing modern facilities, information technology systems, and tools needed for efficient delivery of free legal aid services to promote access to justice, truth, and peace.

IV. Service Pledge:

The PAO commits itself to provide prompt, competent, reliable, and excellent free legal services to indigents and other qualified persons in adherence to R.A. No. 9406, otherwise known as the PAO Law, and other pertinent laws, rules, and regulations, and pledges to fulfill its mandate with utmost honesty, sincerity, and respect for the rule of law and justice.

Further, PAO endeavors to upgrade its facilities and adapt to global changes in information technology systems and tools to be more effective and efficient in responding to the dynamic legal needs of its clientele.

FEEDBACK AND COMPLAINTS MECHANISM

FEEDBACK AND COMPLAINTS MECHANISM
How to send feedback	Answer the survey form and drop it in the survey form box provided in every service unit, regional and district office.
How feedbacks are processed	On the first working day of the succeeding month, the Service Head or a duly authorized employee will open the survey form box, collate, and summarize the survey forms. The result will then be discussed with the concerned personnel. Other measures may be taken to address the result.
How to file a complaint	A written complaint, preferably under oath, may be filed by any individual to the PAO Central Office either in person, or through regular mail or e-mail. Complaints may also be filed via the 8888 hotline.
How complaints are processed	Complaints are referred to the Legal Research Service (LRS) of the PAO Central Office for investigation. Upon receipt of the complaint, the LRS will conduct an investigation following the procedures laid down by the Revised Rules on Administrative Cases in the Civil Service and other pertinent issuances. The investigation starts with furnishing the respondent with a copy of the complaint and requiring the respondent to file a comment or explanation thereon within five working days from receipt. The LRS will then furnish the complainant with a copy of the respondent's comment or explanation, if any. The complainant may file a reply within five working days from receipt thereof.
